A WORD FROM KAZMAN

Greetings! Lets try this again. Seems like I have tried to stir this pot before and did not get a whole lot of takers. So anyway lets talk about trading!

I think all of us have traded something at one time or another. It may have been baseball cards as a youngster. Or it may have been Hot Wheels cars last week with one of your Hot Wheels collecting friends. But it does not seem to occur as often as it probably should given the resources that the club has. Why don't more of the members bring a sack of trading material every month? It does not take long to figure out which members like to collect variations, or which members are somewhat new to the hobby and are looking for cars earlier than perhaps 2004. Others may only collect Fords or others may only collect first editions.

No matter what the interest of the collector there is a good chance that you may have something that they need and a good chance that they also might have an extra that you need. If everyone brought their trading material then there is a good chance that everyone would get a car they needed and also get rid of something that was just an extra. The best thing of all is that this might occur without dropping any precious dollars out of the old billfold.

I know, you are saying all cars are not equal in value...a new first edition is not worth the same as a treasure hunt and a 2006 Treasure hunt is not worth as much as a 1995 Treasure hunt. Well that is true enough. However, most of us have a pretty good idea of what cars are worth and if we are all trying to be fair about our trades things should work out ok. An example of what can be easily traded without too much squawking about values are the Kellogg's cereal cars promotion currently sold only at Target. This promotion consists of a series of Ford Fusions and they have 3 colors with a fourth being a special car, which can be turned in for a real Ford Fusion. Now the 3 colors all should be worth the same and I for one do not want to eat 10 boxes of cereal just to get the 3 colors. I know that some of you are buying the cereal to get the car so how about bringing your extras and we can have some fun helping each other complete our sets. I would appreciate it. and my dentist will appreciate it as well!

Good luck hunting!

T-Town Wheelers' Club Cars

Current Club Cars for 2006

On this next meeting in August, we need to elect and vote on any vehicle wanted for our 2006 club car. Please bring one of the vehicles you have in mind to the August meeting so everyone knows which car you are talking about. We will then show the cars to everyone and pick the most wanted 3 cars from that group. After we have gotten our choices narrowed down to 3, we will then vote on which of those vehicles a majority wants. On or by our September meeting, we will then ask that you bring at least one of these vehicles to the Club Car Committee so these cars can be started and completed hopefully by Christmas 2006.

This is not normal protocol for voting on our club cars, but since we have been so far behind for the past couple years, we are trying to catch up. By the time 2007 starts, we will be able to start with a clean slate and not be behind. It would be nice in the future to be able to not only have a show, but have a show car that goes with the theme like we have had in the past.

Past Club Cars for 2005

We are very close to having these cars completed. A special Thank You needs to go out to Sherry and Joe Dake and for the use of the hospital Joe works at, Jeff and Jeannette Peterson helping with all of the things they have done including snapping all of the cars back together again, David Smith and for the use of his shop to paint, sticker, and clear the cars in, as well as the help of David Batow, and Gary Arron helping with the cleaning and painting of the cars, and Robert Priebe for helping out with all of the supplies needed to get the cars done. The cars are now painted and put back together just waiting to be placed back into the blisters, and with Geary Fowler's help we will have the card backs very soon as well. I am very pleased with the entire group that have put time and effort into this project to get this done so quickly. Again Thank You!!! Our 2006 cars will be started as soon as we know what they are and have them in hand.

Paul Bales has been working on the Perfect Attendance Cars for the past years' to also get caught up on those as well. Another Thank You goes to Paul for the special work he has done on those cars!!!
