K-Mart Day!

The next scheduled K-Mart Day for Father's Day has been cancelled! K-Mart Days may be permanently discontinued. The following comments are from the discussion board on RLC website!

"Hello all, hopefully this might end some of the "Is there a K-Mart days in June" questions. I was in K-Mart yesterday and asked the store manager and she said (Quote): This is from corporate, all K-Mart's are to sell old Hot Wheels stock from past K-Day's. Then they will order new Hot Wheels and announce a K-Day's for later in the year. Until the old cars are gone, no K-Day's. They are selling them 4 for a $1.00. Our K-mart is almost out of Hot Wheels. They dumped all of there old stock of cars into a big bin."

RLC™ SELECTIONs 2007 #3A&B: It's A First! It's A Pair! It's A Wrap!

With Wheels Chosen, These Two Cars Roll Off To Production

After the casting rounds, we didn't think it could get any stranger. So we moved on into color rounds, never expecting that members would come to almost the same decision for both cars -- blue! Picked for the Bye-Focal was Spectraflame® light blue, while the GTO would be determined to wear Spectraflame® race team blue. Not only were there two, but now they were both in blue.

Well, there would certainly be a difference of opinion when we reached the final round last week to choose wheels. Yet, despite a close race on the Bye-Focal, the double trouble continued. Members went with rubber for both cars. The Bye-Focal will be produced atop a set of five-spoke Real Riders® wheels with red stripes -- another first! -- and the GTO will be released sporting five-spoke Real Riders® wheels with Goodyear tampo!

Now the perfect pair will be produced. We'll release each car in its own package as "3A" and "3B" of the 2007 RLC™ SELECTIONs™ series at a later date.

Red Line Club™ sELECTIONs™ 2007 Car #3A & 3B

3A - Bye-Focal with Spectraflame® light blue finish and Real Riders® five-spoke red-striped wheels

3B - '69 Pontiac® GTO® with Spectraflame® race team blue finish and Real Riders® five-spoke wheels with Goodyear tampo!
